JACHT AGENCY ANNOUNCES NEW MEMBERS FOR SPRING 2021

LINCOLN, Neb. - Members of the Jacht Agency are excited to announce its crew for spring 2021. Fifty-one new members represent both new and returning student “Jachters” from diverse backgrounds and majors at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln (UNL).

Jacht is UNL’s full-service, student-run advertising agency located in the Haymarket District. It provides students with real-world experience that builds on classroom instruction by giving students opportunities to work with various clients in an advertising agency setting.

Jamie Brunken is a current Account Executive at Jacht this semester, and is stepping into a newly created Public Relations position as the Director of PR for the spring of 2021.

"My time at Jacht has been one of the most beneficial experiences of my college career," said Brunken. "To be given the opportunity to be surrounded by my peers who share my passion for the industry and willingness to learn has only furthered my motivation to grow and develop new skills. This will help guide me in my future career and as I step into a new PR position at Jacht."
